

From: howardnancy Adelman
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/7/02 8:53am
Subject: Microsoft "Offenses"

Microsoft may have a "monopoly" on their DOS, but I do not at all feel that they have exerted this "monopoly" to the detriment of consumers by high prices and other "crimes" they are accused of. Rather, they have brought standardization and fair prices for excellent software. I feel that the lawsuit against them is bogus and brought on by their competitors (some monopoly!) who cannot compete against them in the marketplace.

Howard Adelman, M.D.